

to shut it down.

* * *

A. J. MUNSON, 922 East Fifth avenue, received a letter from his sister in California this week in which she told of the death of Mrs. Fanny Maria Boynton in Oakland. Mrs. Boynton was 97 at the time of her death and had been ill several weeks. Her husband, George F. Boynton was a school teacher in Olympia for many years and the family home was established here during that time. He taught in the school located where Ramberg's gro-

(Continued on page six)