

Katherine Ellen Kuehl Is Bride Today in Washington, D.C., Rite

DR. AND MRS. DONALD R. KORST, 19 University Houses, and their daughter, Ellen Katherine, and son, Donald Kuehl, are in Washington, D. C., today where they are members of the bridal party of Mrs. Korst's sister, Miss Katherine Ellen Kuehl. Miss Kuehl and Mrs. Korst are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Kuehl, Washington, former well-known Madisonians.

The bride was married in a ceremony at 4:30 p. m. in St. Paul's Lutheran Church to 2nd Lt. Edward Booker Layne Jr., son of the senior Mr. and Mrs. Layne, Washington. For the rite, she wore a gown with beaded and crystal raised flower motifs on ivory satin. It had a long court train. She wore a veil of Brussels lace and carried a white orchid with stephanotis.

MRS. KORST, matron of honor, had an aqua nylon net dress fashioned with a full skirt accented with a pleated front. Her bandeau matched her gown. Cavalier roses were in her bouquet.

Young Ellen Katherine Korst wore a full-skirted white nylon dress for her role as flower girl. She also carried Cavalier roses. Her brother was ring bearer.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushering were Dr. Korst; Dr. Edward Golden Jr., Washington; John Young Jr., Roanoke, Va., and Harold Albin, USN, Newport, R. I.

A reception was held at the Columbia Country Club in Chevy Chase, Md.

Beige silk organza fashioned the frock which the bride's mother wore with beige accessories and matching shoes. Her gown had cocoa-colored appliqued flowers to accent, along with a corsage of peach glamellias.

The bridegroom's mother witnessed the nuptials in a mauve dress of silk organza. She had a matching hat and a pink rose corsage.

FOR THE HONEYMOON TRIP to Split Rock in the Pocono Mountains, the bride chose a tan linen dress with cocoa and tan straw flowers at the shoulderline and on the skirt. The newlyweds will reside at Cherry Point, N. C., where he is on legal duty with the Marine Corps.

The bride is a graduate of Holton-Arms School, Centenary Junior College and Maryland University, where she affiliated with Kappa

Mrs. Edward Booker Layne Jr.
Glogau Studio

Kappa Gamma. She taught school in Montgomery County, Md.

Lt. Layne attended Lynchburg College in Virginia and was graduated from Maryland University, the George Washington University law school, Officer's School at Quantico, Va., and the Naval School of Justice, Newport, R. I. He is a Sigma Alpha Epsilon.