

benefit of the youngsters.

W. P. Merrill advertises in another column that his wife, Henrietta, has left his bed and board, and he will be no longer responsible for her debts.

Hub Parker had the Carson Guard