

good	that this once is not the worst place	the cor-	in the world for boy's.
u in-
llent	A Quiet Wedding.	F
mis-		see well,	William G. Ritchford of Gardnerville	teri but	and Miss Ruby H. Merrill of Wood-	S cold	fords were made man and wife last	enti pros-	Sunday.
p of	The nuptials took place at the Grover and	hotel in Markleeville at 4 o'clock, the rops	ceremony being performed by Judge teen	N. D. Arnot. A few intimate friends	T of the contracting parties were present.	acro her	Though the marriage was a quiet one	Nev She	the happy couple were the recipients	grac ears	of many beautiful and useful presents.	a hi ided	The groom grew to manhood in	spra she	Gardnerville, and is noted for his in-	Wh was	dustry and good qualities, and his	Mrs now	lovely bride is the accomplished daugh-	wea om-	ter of Mrs. Mary Merrill of Woodfords	essa pril,	station.	ed a
s. G.	The newly wedded couple have many	was the	friends who wish them a life of un-	Trib here	alloyed happiness. The COURIER also	appl ard-	joins in the general benediction. May	the sters	the grace and light of love and truth	able ollie	be with them in youth and old age.	del teen		day
ville.	The Champion Mower is Best.	