

y, Mrs. Palm's apartment.

Covered Wagon Pioneer Stricken

re
co y

a d
is o
ee
y
k,
l-
E.

Mrs. Fanny Maria Boynton, 97, Oakland pioneer resident, died yesterday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Edwin Nott, well-known Oakland clubwoman, of 3270 Hopkins Street. Her death followed a stroke which she suffered more than a month ago.

m
by
"b
bo
Su
wa
gu
th
Th
th

Mrs. Boynton, a native of Anderson, N. Y., came to the West with her parents in 1848, crossing the plains with the Belknap Company in covered wagons. After narrow escapes from roving Indian bands, Mrs. Boynton, four sisters and her father and mother settled in Oregon. Mrs. Boynton came to Oakland in 1892. Funeral services are pending.

wh
of
sh
co
fa

C E D